

I strongly support current regulations and the current iteration of net neutrality and would ask that this motion be dismissed. Leaving such a crucial infrastructure to the sole discretion of the industry providing it is absurd. We are not talking about reesee peanut butter cup coffee mugs, we are talking about billions of dollars of industry including small businesses like my own who rely on the internet to conduct 100% of our business.

-Brandon Shockley